For close to a half a century, Beth Jacob High School of Denver has provided a comprehensive Torah-true education under the guidance of nationally recognized leaders and cherished teachers who continue to inspire students from Denver and around the globe. Close to 1,000 Bais Yaakov former students have gone on to build accomplished Jewish lives as mothers, professionals and community leaders.

As Beth Jacob High School of Denver approaches its Golden Jubilee, we will be honoring Renee (Judess) Heisler ('80) and her seven daughters, who have maintained a presence in the school during five decades.

These treasured eight students tell a unique Bais Yaakov story. Renee attended BYD in the 70's and 80's, and enrolled her oldest twin daughters in the late 90's, continuing through the 2000's with her currently enrolled youngest two daughters. Together with her husband Rabbi Yosef Heisler, Renee has raised a family of 12 outstanding children. She has been a teacher par excellence at Torah Academy of Minneapolis for more than three decades, where she has mentored and influenced hundreds of students.

In addition to supporting Bais Yaakov's scholarship program, the 49th Anniversary Journal offers an opportunity to honor its leadership, faculty and eight honorees: Renee Heisler and her daughters, Nechama Prero ('01), Chava Katz ('01), Miryam Schloss ('04), Rivka ('10), Tova ('12), Esther Malka ('17) and Bas Sheva ('19).
