“The path of life leads upward for the wise” (Mishlei 15:24). Torah wisdom is a roadmap for spiritual upward mobility. A true Torah life is one of constant, continuous, never-ending striving for new levels and vistas in spiritual growth and self-improvement. This concept of constant dynamic Torah growth is uniquely expressed in the Yiddish word “shteig”.

And “shteig” is the one-word mission-statement of the Denver Community Kollel. The Kollel is committed to being a center of “shteiging” for the entire metro-Denver area. Our Kollel Community scholars and their families dedicate their lives to Torah growth: both their own “shteiging”, and that of Denver-area Jews of all backgrounds.

This evening we honor three couples who exemplify dynamic Torah growth. Bob and Allison Weiss, Michael and Randy Weiss and Jeremy and Sora Simblist, each in their own unique way, are supreme role models in this regard. May we all be inspired to rededicate ourselves to “shteiging” together for many years to come!

Dear Friends,

Hearfelt congratulations to the Denver Community Kollel, the Deans and the Kollel scholars on your 16th anniversary!

Denver Community Kollel is a wellspring of Torah learning, from which the Jewish masses can derive life-giving powers.

As life itself, the Kollel experience is not a quick fix; it requires commitment. However, even a small investment of time will pay large dividends of enormous value for the quality of one's life.

Beth Jacob High School of Denver continues to derive great nachas from the work of the Kollel in our midst. A special Yasher Koach to Jeremy and Sora Simblist, Mike and Randy Weiss, and Bob and Allison for their personal growth in Torah, loyalty, and support.

A special thank you to all of the supporters of the Denver Community Kollel who are enhancing Jewish life through their attachment to, and support of, this wonderful organization.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Friends,

Please join us in support of the Denver Community Kollel.

After learning in the Kollel, and with various members of the Kollel, for over a decade, we have come to know the Denver Community Kollel very well. And we feel it is a privilege to invest with them. We gain so much from the religious ambiance they provide to us and the community. The ability to freely access a truly world-class talmid chacham in the Rosh Kollel. The ability to have true friends in many of the members and extended members. And so much more. We are full of gratitude that they consider us friends, and we will continue to give our utmost respect and support.

Sincerely,

Jeremy and Sora Simblist

WHO WE ARE

The Denver Community Kollel is an institute for advanced Torah study whose scholars are dedicated to serving the educational and spiritual needs of all Jews throughout the greater Denver area.

OUR MISSION

Our mission is twofold:

- To prepare our scholars for their future roles as leaders of the Jewish community.
- To share the beauty of Judaism – and Torah study in particular – with Jews of all backgrounds.

OUR STAFF

The Kollel is currently comprised of five scholars who study Torah in-depth under the direction of Kollel Deans Rabbi Shachne Sommers and Rabbi Aron Yehuda Schwab. The scholars dedicate much of their day to furthering their Torah study and knowledge. They dedicate their evenings and other hours during the week to studying one-on-one with community members and giving classes.

Rabbi Moshe Heyman, the Kollel's Director of Programming, oversees and coordinates all of the Kollel's community programs, while exploring and developing new opportunities for Torah study throughout the greater Denver area.

Rabbi Mordechai Fleisher, the Kollel's Director of Operations, oversees and directs the administrative operations of the Kollel. He is also a Senior Educator for the Kollel, delivering his dynamic and informative classes throughout Denver.

The Kollel Women's Division, led by the wives of the Kollel scholars, works to bring the beauty of Judaism and Torah to women and their families in particular.

NIGHTLY TORAH STUDY AT THE KOLLEL'S TORAH CENTERS

Jews of all backgrounds study at the Kollel's Torah Centers located on Denver's West Side and in Southeast Denver. The Kollel offers one-on-one study and group study with Kollel scholars.

WEEKLY TORAH CLASSES

Kollel scholars give weekly classes and lectures to small groups on a variety of topics, including Talmud, the Torah Portion, and Jewish Law. Classes are held primarily in the evenings, at the Kollel and in locations throughout Denver.

LEARN 2 LEARN

Jews who want to attain the tools and ability needed to achieve independent Talmud study are given that opportunity at this class. Two tracks, led by Kollel scholars Rabbi Dovid Schwartzberg and Rabbi Eli Mozes meet bi-weekly at the Kollel's Southeast Torah Center, while Kollel Scholar Rabbi Yossi Kaplan delivers the class weekly at the Kollel's West Side Torah Center.

Programs for Men

WOMEN'S PARTNERS IN TORAH

Women of all backgrounds study in pairs, in person or over the phone. Students and their mentors study a variety of topics, including Jewish law, family purity, philosophy, and Jewish history.

JEWISH WOMEN'S RENAISSANCE PROJECT

The Kollel's Esti Schwab and Yehudis Heyman lead Denver Jewish women as they join women from all over North America on missions to Israel. The Jewish Women's Renaissance Project (JWRP) runs a highly-subsidized, 10-day, action-packed mission to Israel. Women travel as a group, grow as a group, and continue "their journey" back to their communities as sisters, having shared an incredible experience together. They share a common vision of self-growth and personal development to reach their potential as Jewish women, wives and mothers. To date, JWRP has brought together close to 1,000 women from 20 cities and 6 different countries.

Programs for Women

SOUTHEAST WOMEN'S CLASSES

High-level classes from Kollel rabbis and women on Jewish thought provide a bigger, breathtaking picture of Judaism, providing a greater appreciation of a Torah-observant life.

WOMEN'S WELLNESS WORKSHOP

An annual summit for Jewish women highlighting a variety of wellness issues regarding the mind, body and soul, the Women's Wellness Workshop brings together a diverse group of Jewish women to discover new insights into living life - both physical and spiritual - in the most fulfilling fashion possible.

TORAH FOR TYCOONS

This monthly business ethics lunch-and-learn series gives Jewish business professionals the tools to maintain high ethical standards in the workplace. It is unique in that it pairs some of Denver's top Jewish business leaders with Kollel Dean Rabbi Aron Yehuda Schwab and Senior Educator Rabbi Mordechai Fleisher to uncover how the Torah's timeless wisdom can be applied to today's most difficult business-related ethical challenges.

EXECUTIVE LEARNING PROGRAM

Kollel Rabbis Yechiel Erlanger, Moshe Heyman and Mordechai Fleisher gives business professionals with hectic schedules the opportunity to study Torah and learn more about Judaism by studying with them one-on-one in their offices and homes. More than a dozen businessmen participate in this program.

LUNCH-AND-LEARNS

Rabbis Yechiel Erlanger, Moshe Heyman, and Mordechai Fleisher give business professionals "spiritual" food for thought with weekly Lunch-and-Learn classes in Glendale and downtown Denver.

Programs for Business Professionals

SPEAKER'S BUREAU

Kollel scholars are available to lecture to small groups on nearly 75 business and personal ethics topics. These lectures have been compiled from past Torah for Tycoons and Beyond 9-to-5 classes.

HOME STUDY GROUPS

Kollel scholars lead study discussions in informal home settings on a variety of topics, including Shabbos, bringing Judaism into the home and family, and personal ethics.

JEWISH CHILDREN'S EXTRAVAGANZA

On December 25, the Kollel rents out the South Suburban Family Sports Center in Centennial and provides a fun and entertaining day for Jewish children and their families. Some 500-800 Jews of all backgrounds participate in this program.

Programs for Families & Youth

SHABBOS HOSPITALITY

The Kollel scholars and their wives regularly host individuals and families in their homes for Shabbos. This program is open to any Jew who wants to experience an authentic Shabbos.

KUMZITZ

Each year the Kollel organizes several Kumzitzes/Melave Malkas in different neighborhoods throughout Denver. The Kumzitzes combine inspirational singing with good food and warm camaraderie. The Kumzitzes give community members the chance to spend an enjoyable evening getting to know the Kollel members in an informal setting.

Programs for Families & Youth

FATHERS AND SONS

The Kollel holds Fathers and Sons programs in a number of locations, giving fathers the opportunity to spend quality time with their sons as they pass on our most priceless treasure - the Torah.
